FOCUS ON RESEARCH

PROF. GEORGE MAGOHA, Ph.D, MBS, EBC, CBS
Cabinet Secretary, Ministry of Education

I congratulate the graduating Class of 2021 of University of Embu. We share in your happiness and recognise your diligence and hard work throughout your academic journey. Your academic accomplishments are a clear testimony to your peers that hard work and discipline indeed brings success. We appreciate the commitment of your parents, guardians, sponsors and the University of Embu community who, in one way or the other, have contributed to the success of the graduating Class.

This graduation comes at a time our country is confronted with the challenge of the Covid-19 pandemic, which has not only affected our academic calendar, but has also placed our economy under strain. But I thank our universities for defying this health crisis to excel in their mandates. I wish to impress upon our graduates and the entire faculty members in our universities on the need to intensify research aimed at coming up with the best interventions for handling the challenges of Covid-19. It is your duty as the academia to come up with viable solutions that can guide the Government in addressing the challenges facing the society.

CONGRATULATIONS TO UoEm GRADUANDS

Ms. MUMINA BONAYA
State Departments for Early Learning & Basic Education and University Education and Research, at the Ministry of Education

I take this opportunity to convey hearty congratulations to the graduands on their achievement. We, at the Ministry of Education, are proud of the UoEm graduating Class of 2021; you have worked hard to get to this level. It is never a mean feat. Today, you are not just on the verge of becoming graduates of this distinguished University, but also the UoEm alumni. To you I say, "Go forth and make a difference. Go and transform the world, because the knowledge you have acquired from this institution transforms". To the parents and guardians, this is your day too. These graduands owe the successful completion of their studies to you. I invite you to be part of this celebration. You toiled diligently and strenuously behind the scenes to finance and to provide moral support to these dear ones. We celebrate you!

University education is critical in producing highly skilled manpower needed to enhance productivity for socioeconomic development and carrying out research to provide solutions to societal challenges. The Ministry of Education will continue to support our universities and our students through the provision of proper learning facilities and an equitable, accessible and quality university education observing high quality standards. This will improve the overall livelihoods of Kenyans.

FOCUS ON QUALITY TEACHING AND LEARNING

AMB. SIMON NABUKWESI
Principal Secretary, State Department for University Education & Research, Ministry of Education

I am elated to join the University of Embu in congratulating the graduating Class of 2021. I recognize the efforts and the support given by the academia, parents, partners and the Government, which has seen you celebrate this academic success. I am confident that with the University's steadfast commitment to providing quality teaching and learning, you have received the best training that you will use in building the Nation.

I encourage the University to double its efforts to foster research initiatives and disseminate the outputs for advancing service to humanity. The Government, on its part, will remain open to positive ideas aimed at positioning our education system as a leading brand in the global arena. I urge you, the graduands, to be guided by ethics and integrity in all your endeavours as you enter the new chapter of life. I wish you the very best as you set sail for transformational career undertakings.

Congratulations!

COMMITTED TO PROVIDING QUALITY EDUCATION

PROF. PAUL MUSILI WAMBUA, Ph.D, FCI Arb.
Chancellor, University of Embu

I am delighted to join the University of Embu fraternity for this 6th Graduation Ceremony. This is the second Graduation Ceremony we are conducting virtually as a result of the COVID-19 global pandemic. The success of the Class of 2021 reminds us that determination, resilience and flexibility are essential in all that we do.

The University of Embu has, over the years, continued to scale higher heights as it seeks to find its niche as a global leader and an epicentre of excellence. I note with pride that in the recently released 2019/2020 Financial Year Performance Contracting Evaluation Cycle, the University of Embu emerged the best performing state corporation among the 223 State Corporations in Kenya. This new ranking acknowledges the University's commitment to delivering high quality programmes, fostering excellence in research and scholarly work, and providing unique and transformative learning experiences that put our graduates on the path to success.

I convey my congratulations to the University Management, Senate, Staff and students for this and other noteworthy great achievements.

CREATING AN ENABLING ENVIRONMENT FOR GROWTH

DR. KENNEDY OKONG'O, Ph.D
Chairperson, UoEm Council

I am pleased to be part of this great celebration of achievement by our students who have worked tirelessly to achieve academic excellence despite the raging COVID-19 global pandemic. I sincerely congratulate the Class of 2021 for successfully completing their studies.

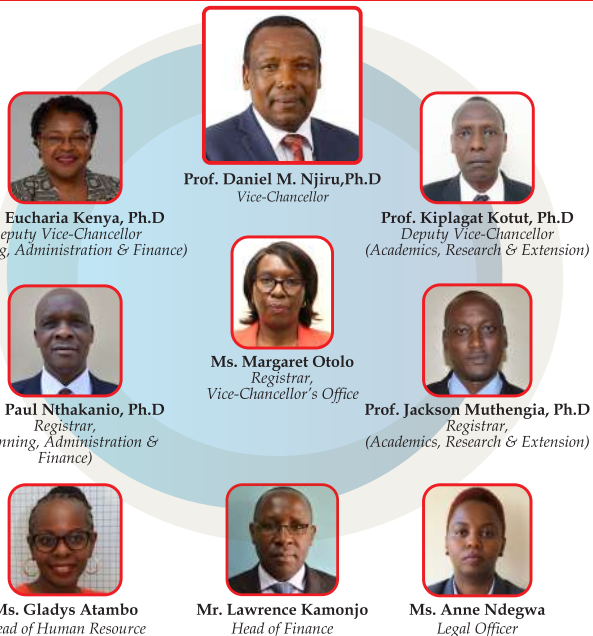

The University of Embu has, over the years, made significant contributions to human capital development by training highly skilled graduates to drive the national development agenda. Despite the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, which has made it difficult for most world organizations to stay afloat, the University has recorded numerous achievements on many fronts.

I appreciate our Chancellor for his good leadership. I congratulate the Council, Vice-Chancellor, Staff,

Students and all the stakeholders for their efforts and contribution to the good performance of the University. As a Council, we are committed to creating a conducive and enabling environment for the staff and students to learn, work and grow in a top-notch environment.

DEPUTY VICE-CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGES

PROF. KIPLAGAT KOTUT, Ph.D
Deputy Vice-Chancellor,
(Academics, Research & Extension)

I wish to join the University of Embu Management, staff and students in congratulating the graduating Class of 2021. Yours has been a journey marked by challenges occasioned by several unprecedented events. This 6th graduation ceremony is a testament of your hard work and adaptability to change. We are proud of you!

The Academic Division will continue to ensure that the welfare of our students is taken care of through various partnerships with stakeholders and through initiatives to support those in need.

The University has implemented many market-driven programmes. Academic staff are periodically retooled for modern pedagogical approaches to promote research and innovation.

PROF. EUCHARIKA KENYA, Ph.D
Deputy Vice-Chancellor,
(Planning, Administration & Finance)

It is such a great honour to witness the 6th Graduation Ceremony of the University of Embu; the 2nd of its kind! I congratulate the Class of 2021 for teaching us all the invaluable lessons of persistence, resilience and determination. Today marks the start of a new phase of your career paths. We are confident that you have been well prepared to take up the challenge of creating opportunities for yourselves and others.

The Division of Planning, Administration and Finance (PAF) is dedicated to building and maintaining an efficient administrative infrastructure that supports and facilitates University-wide operations, support services, financial management and the strategic growth of the University of Embu.

Congratulations.

UoEm RANKED BEST STATE CORPORATION IN SERVICE DELIVERY

University of Embu was ranked the Best Performing State Corporation in Kenya during the 2019/2020 Financial Year, Performance Contract cycle for Government Ministries / Departments / Agencies, State Corporations and Tertiary Institutions. This was contained in a report published by the Ministry of Public Service and Gender. The evaluations were done by the Public Service Performance Management and Monitoring Unit through the Government Performance Contracting Information System (GPCIS) between November and December 2020.

Despite the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic which hit the Country in March 2020, while in the second quarter of the performance cycle and the accompanying budget cuts to avail resources for addressing the pandemic, the University of Embu was still able to achieve all its performance targets, thereby clinching the 1st Position as the Best Performing State Corporation. The evaluations serve as one of the Government's strategies for enhancing efficiency and effectiveness in public service delivery. Out of the 223 state corporations whose performance was evaluated, five of them, representing 2.2% attained an Excellent Performance Grade, while 23% attained a Very Good Performance Grade. Another 167 state corporations, representing 74.8% achieved Good, Fair or Poor, hence did not achieve their performance targets.

The performance of public institutions is usually evaluated based on the following criteria;

1. Absorption of Allocated Funds;
2. Absorption of Externally Mobilized Resources;
3. Core Mandate;
4. Project Completion Rate;
5. Access to Government Procurement Opportunities;
6. Youth Internship/Industrial Attachments/Apprenticeships; and
7. Corruption prevention.

UNIVERSITY OF EMBU IN TOP TEN POSITION IN WEBOMETRICS RANKING

University of Embu was ranked position 10 out of 123 institutions in Kenya in the Webometrics Ranking released in July, 2021. During the January 2021 Edition, the University also ranked position 10 out of 123 institutions. Since its establishment, the University has continued to strive for excellence in all its operations. Every member of the University of Embu community works tirelessly to ensure that the University makes continuous improvement in subsequent rankings.

During the 2021 ranking, three parameters were considered; Openness, Impact, and Excellence.

LAW STUDENTS EXCEL IN MOOT COURT COMPETITION

Law students participate in the Moot Court competition held at the University of Embu on 12th March, 2021.

Moot court competition, a century old legal simulation process of training lawyers helps to gauge, engage and prepare law students for effective legal case presentations, courts trials and proceedings. The School of Law participated in the inaugural Kenya National Disability Rights Moot Court Competition organised by the University of Nairobi's School of Law held between 17th to 28th May, 2021. The competitions focused on challenges facing persons with mental disabilities and the interventions to champion equality, inclusion and justice. During the competition, the University team attained the third highest score for their memorials with Mr. Munene Njoroge, a 2nd year student emerging the 2nd Best speaker in the competition's preliminary rounds.

Seven universities namely University of Nairobi, Catholic University of East Africa, Mt. Kenya University, Strathmore University, Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture and Technology and Egerton University participated in the competition.

who have made profound and enduring national and international contributions to scholarship, and improved quality of life in society at large. This is in line with the Commission for University Education, Universities Standards and Guidelines, 2014 and the University Statutes.

Dr. Gikuihi has served the Nation of Kenya in various capacities- as a classroom teacher, an administrative officer and a policy director at TSC, a university lecturer and ultimately as the 1st Chairperson of the University of Embu Council. Her leadership acumen transformed the University of Embu through the development of key infrastructure, and putting in place appropriate policies, procedures and processes for development.

Dr. Gikuihi has received numerous commendation and recognition for her outstanding leadership. In her teaching career spanning over 40 years, Dr. Gikuihi has touched many lives, she has also supported numerous community development initiatives, positively impacting on livelihoods; and promoting economic empowerment.

Congratulations Dr. Margaret Mumbi Gikuihi!

The University of Embu will on Friday, 17th September on the occasion of the 6th Graduation Ceremony, confer an Honorary Degree of the University to Dr. Margaret Mumbi Gikuihi for her outstanding and sustained achievements as an educator and for her impeccable record of distinguished public service. This is a historic moment for the University as Dr. Gikuihi becomes the first recipient of this great honour.

The honorary degree is one of the highest recognition that the University bestows on individuals of great integrity,

UNIVERSITY EMBRACES ONLINE AND BLENDED LEARNING

The University of Embu (UoEm) has successfully implemented blended learning in teaching and learning. The University continues to provide effective, flexible, convenient and accessible learning experiences to address the needs of the students. The successful implementation of blended learning is attributed to the visionary leadership of the University Management, the commitment of academic staff and hardworking students. The University has invested heavily on the ICT infrastructure in provision of state-of-the-art hardware, software, and increased internet bandwidth to support online learning. The University has trained academic staff in course content development for virtual environments, the effective use of both UoEm e-Learning Management System (LMS) and UoEm Web Conferencing e-Platform in teaching and assessment. Training on effective use of the LMS and Web Conferencing e-Platforms for students is continuous. The University has a ODeL and Blended Learning Policy to guide the process.

FRESHERS REPORT FOR 2021/2022 ACADEMIC YEAR

New students having their academic credentials verified during the 2021 September intake

This year, we have admitted 2,475 new students for various Bachelors, Diploma and Certificate and Postgraduate programmes. 1,430 are Male while 1,045 are Female. This brings the total number of students in the University during the 2021/2022 Academic Year to 9,410 enrolled for various programmes in 6 schools up from 8,435 in the 2020/2021 Academic year.

The University of Embu (UoEm) admitted the first group of 123 students in April 2013. Since then, the University has grown in students enrollment.

This growth has been catalyzed by the increase in number of market-driven programmes and aggressive marketing campaigns throughout the Country. The University offers a wide range of undergraduate, master's and doctoral degree programmes in the areas of Science, Computer Technology, Nursing, Agriculture, Business, Education and Law. To cater for interests of students at all levels, the University has continued to develop new programmes. In the recent past, UoEm introduced various Diploma and Certificate programmes to cater for students who do not gain direct entry to the University.

STAFF TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

Participants follow proceedings of the 6th postgraduate students publishing workshop held on 6th June, 2021 at the University's Charter Hall

In its commitment to provide excellent training and development opportunities for its staff, the University, has carried out planned trainings geared towards equipping its personnel with the required competency.

Through Staff Training and Development and the Staff Mentorship policies, the University has set out strategies towards the training and development of its staff. On 12th August, 2021, the University held a Publishing Workshop that brought together all academic members of staff. The Workshop targeted staff, who are also supervisors of postgraduate students.

The Workshop addressed the fundamentals of publishing, guiding postgraduate students through the publication process, emerging issues in student research and publications, data analysis, what editors/reviewers look for, intellectual property, plagiarism and patenting. It is believed that this will improve the UoEm publications as well as research work.

As a strategic approach, members of staff have been looped in the staff training process as internal facilitators to help them build skills, stay up to date with industry changes, and share knowledge.

published in high impact peer-reviewed journals. The Directorate of Research and Extension conducts capacity building trainings for University academic staff members to improve the quality and quantity of research outputs.

RESEARCH AND EXTENSION

University of Embu staff are actively engaged in research and extension activities. In the recent past, the University attracted more than Kshs 167M through external research grants. Currently, there are over 20 ongoing research projects. Members of staff are also committed to disseminating their research findings through publications, presentations at conferences and extension work. In 2020/2021 alone, 104 articles were

MAKING AN IMPACT THROUGH CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

University of Embu staff donate food items and fluorescent bulbs to Jomo Kenyatta Children's Home on 30th June, 2021.

Despite the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the University continued to carry out its CSR activities during the 2020/2021 Financial Year. In recognition of the need to contribute towards the Country achieving its goal of planting two million trees by the year 2022, which will be a 10% tree cover, participated in various tree planting exercises where a total of 13,650 trees were planted.

In contributing to education development and enhancing good relations with the community, the University donated fluorescent tubes, foodstuff and firewood to various Institutions around Embu. The Institutions included; D.E.B Kangaru Primary School, Jomo Kenyatta Children's Home for the Physically Handicapped, ACK St. Monica's Embu Special School, St. Angela's Embu Children's Home, St. Stephen's Children's Home and Kavutiri D.E.B Secondary School. The University in addition donated food stuffs and firewood to the Children's Homes and the institutions for mentally/ physically challenged children in addition to the fluorescent tubes.

PARTNERSHIPS & COLLABORATIONS

UoEm VC, Prof. Daniel Mugendi (right) & Ambassador of Italy to Kenya, H. E. Alberto Pieri display MoU documents shortly after the signing ceremony on Friday, 10th May, 2021.

University of Embu strives to offer quality education to the students, thus the need for collaboration and partnerships with like-minded institutions.

University of Embu held a security stakeholder's forum that involved University Management, Embu University Hostel Owners Association (EMUHOA), Boda Boda Sacco officials and the County Security team geared to ensuring enhanced student's security as it is key.

In preparation for improved training of teachers, the University reviewed an MoU with Kenya Union of Post Primary Education Teachers (KUPPET) and Kenya National Union of Teachers (KNUT). The MoU ensures that the University is well informed of the teacher requirements, thus imparting the right skills in the preparation of the Bachelor of Education students.

The Embu Teaching and Referral

Hospital (ETRH), reviewed an MoU with the University geared towards preparation of nurses and doctors. The ETRH facility complements the University by providing practical sessions to the Bachelor of Science Nursing students. The students are presented with an opportunity to interact with other professionals in the field of medicine. The MoU also allows the University researchers to carry out joint research with medical professionals in an effort towards providing solutions in the field of medicine.

The University also signed MoUs with the National Cereals and Produce Board (NCPB); and Embu Water and Sanitation Company (EWASCO). The MoUs will see the institutions carry out joint researches as well as secure industrial attachments for the students, particularly those taking Bachelor of Science in Agriculture programme.

UNIVERSITY PRODUCTS

The University produces KEBS certified products. These products are used within the University whereas others are used to generate revenue for the University. Necessary approvals were obtained from the Public Health Offices and the Kenya Dairy Board for the production of Water and Yoghurt products. Some of these products include: Chick mash, Growers Mash, Layers Mash, Sow and Weaner, Instant Hand Sanitizer, Disinfectant, Liquid Hand Wash, Bleach, Carpet and Upholstery shampoo, Multipurpose Liquid detergent, Yoghurt and Drinking Water.

My Campus Experience

Ms. Awuor Graca Ochien'g
Graduand Class of 2021

I was admitted in the University in 2016, a young naive lady. My 4 years' journey and pursuit for education at the University has been interesting, to say the least. As a Statistics student, I have had lecturers who have been fully dedicated to providing the best services. The University made things easy for me on and off lecture rooms. My passion for performance art has been nurtured through participating in both internal and external events organized by the University. This allowed me to create networks, experience different cultures and diversity that will greatly shape my professional growth outside the university. University of Embu is really the best choice of every high school student.

Congratulations Comrades

Gweth Enock
Chairman, UESA

On behalf of University of Embu Student Association (UESA), I congratulate the Class of 2021 for this remarkable achievement in their lives. I know it was not easy, especially in the middle of this global pandemic.

Dear graduates, a graduation ceremony not only celebrates a moment in time but it is also a culmination of your years of hard work, learning about the world and also yourselves. I wish to thank everyone who took part in shaping your lives and making you achieve this very important milestone in your lives. Most importantly, is to thank your families, guardians and the community around for being a great support system to you. My prayer is that you invest in yourself and see the value of giving back and building your community in the best way you can. Above all, keep God first. Always remember, when you carry God, you carry everything and the Fear of God is the beginning of wisdom.
